MONTEGRAPPA PUR SANG DUOTONE PEN

In creating Bugatti Pur Sang Duotone writing instruments, Montegrappa studied the details and surfaces of the Veyron, inside and out. The cars themselves are often supplied in two-tone schemes, reflected in the series' name. Starting on the cap and running through the complete pen, the metal surfaces are engraved with a pattern of "Dynamic Quilting," recalling the upholstery within a Veyron. The Bugatti fountain pen by Montegrappa could not be colored any other way but in the classic Bugatti Blue.

TUTIMA GLASHÜTTE PATRIA

The Patria doesn't merely bear the word "Glashütte" on its dial: this watch's distinctive components and details epitomize the Saxon town's great watchmaking tradition. The Patria's elegantly classic dial indicates the hours and minutes from its center, while the seconds are shown along a calibrated and unconventionally large circle positioned below the dial's center at 6 o'clock. A pane of sapphire crystal on the back of its case reveals a finely gold-plated movement with a traditional Glashütte three-quarter plate.
