

MILITARY WATCHES

By Rachel Gold

In this guide to military-influenced watches you will find a selection of timepieces that are rugged, easy-to-read and ready for action whether on the ground, in the air, or on the water. A military-inspired timepiece is built to be tough and durable while also maintaining its camouflage or stealthy profile on the wrist. From the boardroom to a night on the town or even to your next mission, these watches are ready to be called to duty.
